TMI Vision

TMI club envisions a world where entrepreneurs are inspired and trusted to lead companies that make a meaningful difference. The company believes in a hands-off approach, emphasizing trust in the founder's own talents over control. Vision, inspiration, and the 'why' behind being an entrepreneur are considered more important than a finely crystallized strategy and perfectly designed business processes.

Brief Overview

As of April 30, 2025, the Indian stock market has exhibited a mixed performance, particularly within the investment and fund management sector. Here's an overview of the recent developments:

Benchmark Indices

The Nifty 50 and BSE Sensex remained relatively flat, with minor declines of 0.05% and 0.07%, respectively.

Sectoral and Thematic Funds

These funds witnessed a 79% growth in AUM, reaching ₹4.61 lakh crore in 2024, driven by robust retail interest and ₹67,000 crore raised through 40 new fund offerings

Regulatory Initiatives

SEBI's Measures: The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) introduced the 'MF Lite' framework to simplify the setup of asset management companies, encouraging new players in passive funds. Additionally, the 'Specified Investment Funds' asset class was launched, enabling boutique products to reach more investors with a reduced minimum ticket size of ₹10 lakh.
